Rules of Procedure

The rules of procedure are applicable to all committees with the exception of the Forensics Group Discussion, for which separate rules apply. Furthermore, please bear in mind that procedures vary slightly in the Security Council. Of course things are going to be different this year with our conference being online. The variations will be explained by the Chairs and must be followed. It is of the utmost importance that you are thoroughly aware of the rules of procedure as a delegate so as to be able to readily apply them when appropriate. The rules of procedure are enforced to ensure that the committee proceedings operate smoothly.

1. English is the language used for the duration of our conference. It is necessary to use formal language when addressing others, show respect and courtesy towards fellow delegates, and refrain from using offensive language.
2. Formal attire that is appropriate for a Model United Nations conference is imperative. Any delegate not conforming to the dress code will not be permitted to participate. A suit and tie, dress shirt, trousers (not denim), blouse, skirt or dress (of respectable length) are appropriate.
3. Mobile phones must be switched off during the proceedings.
4. The decisions of the Secretariat and Chairs are final and cannot be disputed. In the rare case that a delegate feels the rules of procedure are being misused, he or she may stand to make a 'Point of Order'. The President/Secretary-General/Chairs reserve the right to decide on specific matters, such as the order in which the Agenda items will be debated.
5. During voting procedures the virtual doors will be sealed and no one will be allowed to enter or exit the Committee's google meet. You can either vote 'In Favour' or 'Against', or choose to 'Abstain' by raising your placard when instructed to do so by the Secretariat/Chairs.
6. Amendments to resolutions must be submitted to the Chairs using the appropriate amendment sheet.

Sample Resolution

FORUM: Disarmament and International Security Committee

QUESTION OF: The threat of systematic corruption to international security

SUBMITTED BY: Russian Federation

THE DISARMAMENT AND INTERNATIONAL SECURITY COMMITTEE,

Fully aware of the fact that people and organizations involved in most cases have massive power and their position is meaningful for their state.

Recognising the development in the field of information for CIIS with the adapted resolutions such as ECOSOC Resolution 2006/24 on the issue of “International cooperation in the fight against corruption”, General Assembly resolution 58/4 of 31 October 2003 United Nations on the “Convention against Corruption”, Resolution 6/1 on the issue of “Continuation of the review of implementation of the United Nations Convention against Corruption”,

Observing the influence of the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC) in this field,

Having considered the implications of diplomatic affairs of member states in the process of combating corruption,

Deeply conscious of the problem of “systematic corruption” which affects the global as a whole and is not limited within a country,

1. Trusts an anonymous body to carry out investigation about the presence of systematic corruption in all member-states, through representatives, observers and online monitoring of governmental servers and accounts;
2. Suggests preventive measures and policies, according to which each member state should:
 - a) in conformity with the fundamental principles of its legal system, establish and enforce or sustain effective, harmonized anti-corruption policies that promote the participation of the society and reflect the principles of the rule of law, proper management of public affairs, integrity, transparency and accountability.
 - b) endeavor to inaugurate and promote efficient practices aiming at the prevention of corruption.
 - c) venture to periodically evaluate relevant legal instruments and bureaucratic measures;
3. Seeks that every member state should aim to apply, within its own institutional and legal systems, codes or standards of conduct for the correct, honorable and proper performance of public functions;
4. Emphasizes that systematic corruption is linked to a country's increased vulnerability to terrorist attacks, originating both from the country itself and from external groups and individuals and therefore, it is imperative for global counter terrorism measures to be placed into action, including:
 - a) measures addressing the issues of centralized and decentralized corruption, by limiting the possibility for government officials and public entities within the political and economic scene to orchestrate, instruct and/or be involved in networks of corruption;
 - b) specific counter-terrorism practices, such as:
 - i. criminalizing the financing of terrorists
 - ii. immediately freezing any funds related to those involved in acts of terrorism;
5. Considers that the public is made aware about the dangers of corruption through:
 - a) public lectures on the topic
 - b) articles in mass media
 - c) workshops
 - d) public notification, when corrupt government officials are found guilty;
6. Affirms the need of aid from Transparency International in the form of technical assistance and anti-corruption measures for all states facing systematic corruption, such as:
 - a) the use of online platforms to monitor and publish transactions.
 - b) the enforcement of deportation of foreign nationals or companies that bribe government officials or corporation;
7. Wishes to remain actively seized upon the matter.
